SECTION B (50 MARKS)

51. Read the passage below and in full sentences, answer the questions that follow.

Last week Monday, there was a bad mood in Jackson Mulinde's home. This was because he woke up when he was not feeling well. When his wife, Jesca, woke him up for breakfast, he could not walk. His wife tried to support him but she couldn't manage. So, she called their son who had come from Kyambogo University. He came running and to the highest shock, he saw his father lying on the floor. He quickly rang for ambulance and within short time, it appeared. Two male nurses rushed out of it with a stretcher in their hands. They laid him on it and then put him in the ambulance. Within a short time, he was on hospital bed and on life support machine. Thank God, by midday he was well and smiling.
