MARKET DAYS

Every Wednesday, there is a big market place where people go to buy and sell different items. It is held in a football playground along the road in Luweero town. Sellers come from Kampala city with items nicely packed and loaded on lorries. The buyers also come from the villages around Luweero town.

The sellers bring very many items ranging from safety pins to big animals like cows. Market days are very enjoyable especially at the end of the month when people have received their salaries.

The farmers sell produce while carpenters sell furniture. The herdsmen sell animals. The fish mongers sell fish. The tailors sell clothes. The butchers sell meat. The iron mongers sell saucepans. I am always abused at school
I am kicked and robbed
By pupils whom I know and those that I don't
Is it because I am new or because I am thin and short?

They do bad things to me
But I don't do the same to them
They should know whatever they are doing
I always forgive them
Because it is the best way to go.

I came running to receive my mother who brought a lot of _____ and drinks for me.

I felt happy and _____ her for not disappointing me.
