PEACE AND SECURITY

Everyone enjoys to live in a society
Where there is peace and security
The young and the old
All need peace and security

In societies without peace and security
There are a lot of crimes
Caused by criminals of different groups
The thieves, the robbers and the kidnappers

Oh! Policemen and policewomen
Wake up and maintain law and order
So that people can enjoy their rights
Arrest all wrong doers and take them to prison.

Parents and teachers, guide and counsel children
To help in promoting peace and security
Children, obey rules and regulations
Religious leaders should preach the word gospel
So that we can promote peace and security.

Wambi Magungu

51. Read the passage below carefully and then answer, in full sentences, the questions that follow.

WRITING A PERSONAL LETTER

Nambi Mercy is a pupil at Bufupa Primary School. At school, Nambi enjoys learning English Language because it is her favourite subject.

Last year, in third term when Nambi was still in primary four, she wanted to write a letter. This letter was for her aunt, Betty, who lives in Kampala. Unfortunately, Nambi did not know how to write letters. She felt very sad. She asked her teacher of English Language, Mr Masibo Robert, to teach her how to write a letter. He told her to wait and learn it in primary five.

Nambi felt disappointed but followed the teacher's advice. When she was promoted to primary five, she was very happy. This is because she was going to learn how to write a letter.

One Friday, early in the morning, Mr. Masibo introduced the topic of letter writing. Nambi was very attentive during the lesson. Mr. Masibo explained all the parts of a personal letter. They included; the writer's address, date and the salutation.

After learning how to write a letter, Nambi started practising how to write a letter. She wrote to her aunt and mother. Since that time, Nambi enjoys writing personal letters.
