SECTION B: 50 MARKS

Questions 51 to 55 carry ten marks each

51. Read the story below carefully and in full sentences answer the questions about it.

Bonny is a stubborn boy in Primary four. He goes to school at Eden Junior School in Mukono District. He travels a distance of three kilometres every day to attend school.

At home, Bonny hardly does any domestic work. When his mother asks him to do domestic work, he replies rudely to his mother. When Bonny's father gets the complaint about the son's bad conduct, he only replies, "School will tame him". At school, his absence is a blessing to the school mates. He is fond of beating, fighting and abusing his friends.

During break time, he snatches buns and pancakes from infant pupils.. Whenever they report him to the teachers, his misbehaviour worsens. Prefects at school are tired of his bad acts but they have nothing to do.

One morning during assembly, he shouted when the head teacher was addressing the school. Prefects got him, took him to the teachers on duty, then he was forwarded to the head teacher's office. Bonny was expelled from school. This annoyed his father and he transferred him to another school to repeat primary four the following year.
